Lee Co.

Johnson, Henshaw, King, Sprinkle

CA-Divorce

T-Vices

To the Hon. H. S. K. Marison Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia:

Humbly complaining your Oatrix Jennie Gibson formerly Jennie Johnson would respectfully represent, that in the month of December 1892
she intermarried with one John Gibson and thereby became his lawful wife.

Your Oatrix states that for a few weeks after said marriage, the said John Gibson acted the part of a loving faithful and dutiful husband, and during this time your Oatrix and her said husband lived happily and contented together, and as your Oatrix then thought her happiness complete, and that thereafter she would have no cause ever to complain, but unfortunately for Hanna Oatrix, this state of mind did not long last, for after the expiration of a few short weeks of conjugal happiness, the said John Gibson began to neglect his home his home and his wife, He stood away from his home for days and weeks at a time, mixed and mingled and associated with the worst elements of society that the neighborhood afforded, and thus things continued untill the month of March 1893 when the said John Gibson unmindful of his marital obligations, and in total disregard of the Moral laws of God and the statute of the state regulating the conduct of the citizen, took Charity Hanshaw the wife of Hanshaw and left the state of Virginia, and is now a resident thereof.

Your Oatrix therefore charges that the said John Gibson is guilty of <sup>the crime of</sup> adultery, and besid this he has abandoned your Oratrix and left her to make a living and support herself as best she can, Your Oratrix further states that she has not cohabited with the said John Gibson since she became aware of <sup>the fact of</sup> his infidelity to her, and that such his infidelity was not committed by him or procured by the <sup>consent</sup> connivance of your Oratrix, but against her wish and earnest entreaties.

X Your Oratrix is advised that by the laws of the land and the facts in her case that she is entitled in a court of equity to a divorce à vinculo Matrimonii from the said John Gibson and to attain that end is the object of this bill.

The premises considered your Oratrix prays that the said John Gibson be made defendant to this bill, and be required to answer the same on oath. That order of publication be entered posted and published against him, and upon a hearing of the cause a decree be entered dissolving the bond of Matrimony now existing between your Oratrix and the said John Gibson, and if in anywise mistaken in this her special prayer, then your Oratrix prays for all general relief. November 15, 1894.

The deposition of J.M.Hinshaw, and others taken before me, E.W.R Ewing, a Notary Public in and for Lee county, Virginia, pursuant to notice, at the office of Orr, Blankenship and Ewing, in Jonesville, Va., to be used as evidence in behalf of the plaintiff in a certain action now pending in the Circuit court of said county, wherein Jemima Gibson is plaintiff and John Gibson is defendant, on the 10th day of Oct., 1894.

J.M.Hinshaw, a witness of lawful age being duly sworn, deposes and says:

Ques. 1. State your age occupation and place of residence?

Ans. I am thirty eight. I live near Pennington Gap, Lee county Virginia. Occupation is a farmer.

Ques. 2. State whether or not you are acquainted with Jemima Gibson and John Gibson.

Ans. I have known John about three years, and have known Jemima about two years.

Ques. 3. State whether or not they ever lived together and passed themselves as man and wife?

Ans. Yes, they did.

Ques. 4. State whether or not they are now so living, if not why not, if you know?

Ans. They are not now so living. I was living on King's place In March, 1893, John come to my house one Sunday for dinner. When dinner was ready we all sat down to the table. My wife sat in his lap, eat out of his cup and saucer, and from his plate. In the evening we were at the house of neighbor and John and my wife were out at a pile of logs from the house. I went down to where they were and found them all hugged up, so soon as as they saw me, they jumped as though shot at. They told me that they did not need me in their business. In the evening John was at my house about sun down. I went to get some water and when I returned both he and my wife were gone. They are both now gone from the country. I saw John since in the state of Tennessee and he told me that my wife was at his house.

Ques. 5. State how long Jemima Gibson has been a citizen of this state?
